

Babel Guesthouse is a family run and eco-friendly hotel in Siem Reap, surrounded by a beautiful tropical garden. Babel has 22 rooms in different categories, which have recently been renovated in theme of the guesthouse: green, charming and relaxing.

Over the past year, Babel has taken a lot of initiatives to develop a more sustainable type of tourism by reducing as much as possible plastic use, providing more vegetarian and vegan options and raise awareness of staff and guests about the environment.

What's more? Babel has recently opened the first zero-waste shop in Cambodia! Whether you are an expat or a traveler you'll be able to find a lot of products such as bamboo toothbrush, bamboo travel kits, moon cups, soap, detergent, and coconut oil in bulk and much more.
